

Safe Kids Sarpy County Member of the Quarter

Lieutenant Russ Zeeb

Lieutenant Russ Zeeb from the Sarpy County Sheriff's Office (SCSO) was voted Member of the Quarter by the Sarpy County Safe Kids members during the November 8, 2011, meeting. Russ is an active member of Safe Kids Sarpy County and some of his contributions to Safe Kids Sarpy include:

- Provides pertinent information of safety activities in Sarpy County
- Active participant at Safe Kids meetings
- Continually suggesting ways to keep the children of Sarpy County safe

When we asked Russ why he is interested in Safe Kids Sarpy/Cass, he stated: "I have been involved with way too many small children in tragedies and other circumstances, anything I can do to hopefully prevent one from falling into this category is worth it."

Lieutenant Russ Zeeb joined the SCSO January 14, 1974, right after returning from overseas serving in the US Army as a combat medic. Russ states that the Sarpy County Sheriff Department has 126 sworn officers and 250 total employees (www.sarpy.com/sheriff)

Russ states that in his spare time he enjoys cooking, community events/volunteering, hunting, fishing, anything outdoors, spending time and spoiling his twin grandkids, 27 months old, Nolan Ryan and Caroline. When Safe Kids asked Russ if he has any other details that might be of interest about himself and he had this to say: "I am a single parent, who raised my daughter from age 11. Today, Stephanie Zeeb-Caldwell is an Assistant Attorney General for the Nebraska Attorney General's Office. I serve on the MADD Nebraska and PRIDE board of directors along with numerous other civic organizations. On November 26, Shellie and I will be married starting our life together."
